JOINT COMMITTEE FOR FRANKLIN DELANO ROOSEVELT—COMMEMORATION OF HIS BIRTH

Nov. 24, 1981

[H. Con. Res. 220]

Whereas the year 1982 marks the one hundredth anniversary of the birth of Franklin Delano Roosevelt on January 30, 1882;
Whereas Franklin Delano Roosevelt was an inspiring leader during a great economic depression and a majestic Commander in Chief and was four times elected President of the United States; and
Whereas it is appropriate that the Congress should commemorate the centennial year of President Franklin Delano Roosevelt's birth: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring),
That (a) in order to provide for an appropriate commemoration by the Congress of the centennial of the birth of Franklin Delano Roosevelt, thirty-second President of the United States of America, there is established a Special Joint Committee on Arrangements (hereinafter referred to in this concurrent resolution as the "joint committee") which shall be composed of sixteen members as follows:

(1) The President pro tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives.

(2) Seven members of the Senate to be appointed by the President pro tempore of the Senate, four upon recommendation of the majority leader of the Senate and three upon recommendation of the minority leader of the Senate.

(3) Seven members of the House of Representatives to be appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives, three upon recommendation of the minority leader of the House of Representatives.

(b) The members of the joint committee shall select a chairman and a vice chairman from among its members. A majority of the members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Any vacancy in the membership of the joint committee shall be filled in the same manner in which the original appointment was made.

(c) For the purposes of paragraph 6 of rule XXV of the Standing Rules of the Senate, service of a Senator as a member or chairman of the joint committee shall not be taken into account.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of the joint committee to—

(1) make arrangements for a joint meeting of the Congress to be held on Wednesday, January 27, 1982, or such other day as may be designated by the Speaker, in the Hall of the House of Representatives in commemoration of the centennial of the birth of Franklin Delano Roosevelt;

(2) plan the proceedings of and issue appropriate invitations for such joint meeting; and

(3) coordinate the joint committee's arrangements with the activities of such organizations as it deems appropriate which have been established to observe such centennial.

SEC. 3. The joint committee may—

(1) appoint an Executive Director, who shall serve without compensation, and accept such other volunteer services of individuals as it deems appropriate;

(2) adopt rules respecting its organization and procedures; and

(3) sit and act at such times and places as it shall deem appropriate.

SEC. 4. The expenses of the joint committee under this concurrent resolution may not exceed $25,000 and shall be paid from the contingent fund of the House of Representatives upon vouchers approved by the chairman of the joint committee.

Agreed to November 24, 1981.
